Located in the midst of a golf course, Almenara has 148 rooms all of which boast exquisite decoration based on natural materials helping maintain a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The location and layout of the hotel allow for all the rooms to look out on to the surrounding green, the gardens and even the Mediterranean. The 27-hole Almenara golf course, designed by Dave Thomas, winds its way through a spectacular natural landscape featuring two large lakes, both of which are surrounded by pine, cork and oak trees. Elysium, the Sotogrande Spa, offers a refreshing and relaxing experience for both body and soul. The centre features the most innovative treatments and an array of activities all of which are designed to keep you feeling and looking your best. Other outstanding facilities which can be found in the resort are the golf academy, "Sotogrande Golf Academy", the equestrian centre, the racquet centre which is located by the beach, the "Cucurucho" beach club and also there are two large indoor and outdoor areas which can function as events and meeting spaces alike.

Restaurant Gaia

Gaia

Gaia is a semicircular staircase leading to a large room which is surrounded by enormous windows creating a cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Here the soft music and candlelight invite you in to enjoy your dinner over a relaxed conversation.

Our Cuisine

The creator of the menu is Sotogrande Resort's newest chef, Christian Puigros Baldowsky. Christian's impressive curriculum includes time spent in the kitchens of some of the best national and international restaurants. He has also lived in many countries which is evident in the succulent variety of food that his team prepares.

Meetings & Events

The Almerara Golf-Hotel & Spa, overlooking the Mediterranean, the golf course and the mountains, offers you two meeting rooms that can accommodate from 20 to 150 people. These rooms have all the equipment, services and amenities necessary for the success of your work meetings, conventions, conferences or any other type of celebration. The hotel can also provide external services such as hosts, secretaries, translators or entertainment. Without leaving the hotel premises, you can enjoy the exclusive 18-hole golf course, the Vein Tee Ocho and Gaia restaurants and the Pentagrama piano bar.
