The NH Budapest is located in one of the most important business districts of the Hungarian capital, only a few steps from the Parliament. The hotel is situated right behind the Vígyszínház theatre, the oldest theatre in Budapest. The historical Western Railway station (Nyugati station) is only 500m from the hotel. In the other direction its only a few steps to reach the banks of the Danube river, a few more and you find yourself on Margit island, a place for recreation.

BP.XIII. Vígyszínház u. 3, Budapest (Hungary)

Restaurant Manzanos

Manzanos

The restaurant of the NH Budapest has a fresh and modern atmosphere in which you can enjoy modern cuisine. Popular with businessmen, theatre goers, shoppers and hotel guests.

Our Cuisine

Whether it is for a quick lunch or a leisurely evening meal our restaurant serves a wide range of traditional Hungarian and International dishes.

Start your day with our extensive NH Breakfast Buffet.

Our chef recommends: Pate of goose liver with truffel-honey sherry, Sliced – smoked breast of duck on melba toast. Our highlights include: Roasted breast of duck, with garlic-ginger-balsamico syrup, grilled goose liver. Classical Hungarian Desserts serve as the climax to your meal, prepared according to traditional recipes with a modern touch: rétes strudel filled with sour cherry and poppy seed or a fresh temptation: Pear poached in Red Wine, filled with Walnut Cream.

Our wine list includes vintages carefully selected from local wine regions, many of which are served by the glass. We offer wines from the most famous wine region in Hungary.
