Located in an unusually quite corner of Westminster, the political and cultural heart of London. The hotel occupies a prominent site at the corner of Caxton Street and Broadway, just off Victoria Street. About five minutes' walk from Parliament Square, the London Eye, Westminster Abbey, Houses of Parliament and Queen Elisabeth II Conference Center. The grade II listed building was built on a site of a 15th century monastery and after mansion flats were initially built, it was converted into a hotel at the beginning of the 20th century. The 275 bedroom hotel boasts 19 meeting and banqueting rooms with a maximum capacity of 200 people.

Restaurant Allegro con brio and Crystal Room restaurants

Allegro con brio and Crystal Room restaurants

Allegro con brio, decorated in Venetian style offers Italian fine dining while Crystal Room provides buffet breakfast and carvery lunch and dinners.

Our Cuisine

Allegro con brio is a symphony of Italian flavours in elegant surroundings where you can enjoy our seasonal Italian dishes and fine wines. A selection of starters is available such as fresh sea scallops in the shell, coated with lime leaves and glazed with ginger and vegetables. A large selection of pastas such as cavatelli with broad beans, clams and cherry tomato sauce or cannelloni filled with artichoke on a bed of tomato sauce topped with shaves of black truffle. Main course traditional dishes such as fillet of lamb marinated with herbs crust, braised Savoy cabbage and roasted potatoes.

The recently refurbished Crystal room restaurant provides full continental and English breakfast and carvery style lunches and dinners; carvery meals are composed of soup of the day and selection of hors d'oeuvres buffet to start with, two roast meats and one fish and one meat choices in casserole; in addition one vegetarian and one pasta option with a selection of vegetables. Home made desserts to finish off.
